

You would like to study at FH JOANNEUM but do not yet have the necessary German language skills?

Our “German Language Competence Course” prepares non-native speakers of German for studying at FH JOANNEUM. Not only do you reach the B2 level required for most of our German-language studies, you also get to know and experience your future university and study programme a year before you start studying!

“We want to familiarise you with your future university during the Certificate Programme. This means intensive contact with your course of choice, while also getting to know all of the relevant university services which are on hand to support you during your studies”

The Certificate Programme runs from September 2024 to the end of June 2025 (36 weeks, excl. holidays), or 540 hours of in-person teaching from Monday to Friday as well as 360 hours of self-study. This results in a total workload of 900 hours. The course costs are € 1.500,-.

“The course modules involve preparation for the assessment test and the language of the academic environment: You will acquire specialist language skills and text type-specific expertise.”

Application requirements:

Applicants for the Certificate Programme must meet the admission requirements for the degree programme they wish to study and demonstrate German language proficiency at level A2 in the form of recognised language certificates, including ÖSD Austrian German Language Diploma or Goethe Certificate.

Application Deadline:

30 April 2024

Admission interviews will take place from May to June 2024.
